

NEXT

UP

LONG BEACH CITY COLLEGE

WHAT IS NEXT UP?

Also known Cooperating Agencies Foster Youth Educational Support (CAFYES), this program is housed within an existing community college program for educationally disadvantaged students, known as EOP&S. NextUp provides counseling, career guidance, transportation assistance, and grants to assist with the cost of books, housing and other non-tuition costs to current or former foster youth.

HOW DO I QUALIFY?

- EOP&S Eligible
- Current or former foster youth
- Dependency or ward of the court after their 16th birthday
- Under 26 years old at the beginning of academic year
- Registered in at least 9 units at the time of program enrollment
- Provide verification letter

SERVICES

- Academic & Career Counseling
- Priority Registration
- Book Grants
- School Supplies
- Transportation Assistance
- Help with Financial Aid & Scholarships
- Student Success Workshops
- Foster Youth Gatherings
- Referrals to Mental Health, Housing, Food Support

GET IN TOUCH WITH US

OFFICE: PACIFIC COAST CAMPUS - QQ 104
1305 East Pacific Coast Highway, Long Beach, CA 90806
562-938-3218 | FosterYouth@lbcc.edu